IMPORTANT INFORMATION

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. You have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

Also, we may give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change. If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change.

You do not need to tell us anything that reduces the risk insured is common knowledge, the insurer knows or should know as an insurer or the insurer waives your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, the insurer may cancel your contract or reduce the amount it will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

CHANGE OF RISK OR CIRCUMSTANCES

Please tell us about any changes to your circumstances or business, such as any alteration of risk, location changes, new or changed business activities, as they could affect your insurances.

AVERAGE CLAUSE – UNDER INSURANCE

Home buildings and contents, fire, business interruption, industrial special risks and other policies often contain an average clause. This means that you should insure for full value which may be replacement, indemnity or market value depending on the type of insurance cover arranged. If you are under insured your claim may be reduced in proportion to the amount of under-insurance.

UNREPORTED LOSSES

Please let us know whether there are any losses which have occurred that have not been reported to us/insurers, whether you intend making a claim or not.

NEW CLAIMS

Any quotation we have obtained on your behalf is based on the understanding that there will be no deterioration in the claims experience between the date insurers quoted their terms and the inception date of the cover. If claims do occur during this period, insurers have the right to revise the terms quoted or even withdraw their quotation.

HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENTS, CONTRACTING OUT, REMOVAL OF SUBROGATION RIGHTS

You may prejudice your rights to a claim if, without prior agreement from your insurer, you make any agreement that could prevent the insurer from recovering the loss from a third party. These "hold harmless" clauses are often found in leases, licences and contracts for maintenance, supply, construction and repair.

INSURING THE INTEREST OF OTHER PARTIES

If you require the interest of another party to be covered by the policy, you MUST request this. Most policies will attempt to exclude indemnity to other parties (e.g. mortgagees, lessors, principals etc.) unless their interest is expressly noted on the policy.

SEVERAL LIABILITY

Where your policy cover is provided by more than one insurer it is important to note that each insurer is only responsible to the extent of their individual subscription and there is no obligation for that insurer to make up the shortfall of any other subscribing insurer in a claim or return premium payment.

CONFIRMATION OF TRANSACTION

You may contact us by telephone or in writing to confirm any transaction under your policy, such as renewals and endorsements. If necessary, we will obtain the information for you from the insurer.

COOLING OFF PERIOD FOR RETAIL CLIENTS

If you are a retail client as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 as amended (the 'Act'), you may be entitled to a minimum 14 day cooling-off period during which you may return the insurance policy and receive a refund of the insurance premium paid (less amounts lawfully deducted), subject to the requirements of the Act and the terms and conditions of your policy.

This does not affect any other cancellation rights you may have under your policy.

Please check your policy and schedule upon receipt to be sure you have the cover you require. If the cover does not meet your needs, please contact your JLT Client Risk Adviser for advice as to your rights.

REMUNERATION AND OTHER INCOME

Our principal remuneration for arranging insurance on your behalf is either by way of commission paid by the Insurer and/or a fee including a service fee and an administration fee to be paid by you. In the event of a mid-term broker appointment, JLT reserves the right to retain all commission, fees and charges. In addition to the above the Jardine Lloyd Thompson Group may receive income from insurers as follows: interest earned on insurance monies passing through our bank accounts; profit commissions or profit shares paid by insurers on specific classes of business; administrative service fees or expense reimbursements for limited specific services we provide to insurers as part of the placing or claims process. We will disclose any potential conflict of interest not included above which may occur and affect our relationship.

REFUND OF PREMIUMS

In the event of any refund premium being allowed for the cancellation or adjustment of this insurance policy, JLT reserves the right to retain all brokerage, fees and charges
