

SAND ANIMATION

workshop

REGISTRATION FORM

The Courthouse Gallery is running two sand animation workshops facilitated by renown animator Steve Aiton, as part of the Pujiman exhibition public program. Young and old creatives are invited to explore how sand animations are created, learn about the various techniques involved and develop their own story to document and share.

Steven Aiton is a leading Western Australian animator, community arts facilitator and artist. Shortly after graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Art, he began his professional career with AWESOME Arts Australia as a project artist. He has since worked on many exciting regional and metropolitan projects and artist residencies including the Western Desert Kidney Health Project which was nominated for a Deadly Award in 2011. Steven runs professional development workshops and he teaches animation at Fremantle Arts Centre. He has also been involved in a research project about technology in the classroom. Steven is an accomplished 3D animation artist, his work has featured on television, in art exhibitions and film festivals.
